Sir,

From a D.O. letter of yesterday's date, received from the Dewan inquiring what progress has been made in regard to the Budget of the present year and asking for a Copy as early as possible, I was surprised to learn that the Dewan had not yet a copy placed before him.

2. Herewith I submit, for the information of the Dewan, a Statement of the progress made in re. the printing and supply of the Budget Copies and to add that out of the twenty Specially bound

Copies received in my office at 2. P.M on the 4th Instant, fifteen Copies with a covering letter, addressed to you, were the same evening taken to your office, but as there was none to receive them, my Budget clerk took them in person to the Dewan's Home Office where they were refused to be received. They were therefore delivered at your office at 11 A.M. on the following day.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

E Thompson

To Asstt Secy or Private Secy with the Dewan.

These Copies were sent from Office on 5/8/02 and acknowledged. Please let me know why this D.O. was again written. Yesterday on a requisition from the Asstt Secy, the same reply was given. Two Copies are again sent herewith.

5th August was the day on which the Office was absorbed in the Installation and Viceroy's visit work. It was also the day on which there was an Evening-party at Purnaprasada. As there was nothing to show that there was any urgency about the copies they were kept along with other Form-papers for submission in the usual course. Copies were however submitted to the Assistant Secy the day before yesterday. This is not the first occasion for which copies should have been submitted to the Dewan at once.
